APPLICATION PROCEDURE

In addition to this cover sheet, include the following items in your application packet:

Donald Harward Fellows Award (HDWD) / Senior Thesis Winter Session Scholars (DWD)

- A one-page statement indicating what you plan to accomplish during Winter Session. Please address specifically how this award will further your thesis research during the Winter Session.
- A detailed budget describing how you will use this money. (Note: these funds may be used for living expenses—e.g., rent, groceries, etc.)
- A letter from your thesis director detailing how full-time work will benefit your thesis (see below).
- A signed statement confirming that, if you receive this award, you will take no courses and hold no employment during the 2018 Winter Session.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

All applicants must arrange for a confidential letter of recommendation from your thesis director explaining how full-time work on your project during the Winter Session would benefit your thesis. Faculty should specifically address the work their student has accomplished thus far, how funding will aid the student's research, and why their student should be funded (the awards are competitive). Faculty letters may be submitted by email attachment (pdf format with scanned signature) to Lauren Barsky (lbarsky@udel.edu) or sent in a sealed, signed envelope with your application packet to the address immediate below.

Submit your application to "Attn: Lauren Barsky - Undergraduate Research Program, 180 South College Avenue, Newark, DE, 19716."

APPLICATION DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 15, 2018
